“ I just met Nevel at our AP training in Texas and knew automatically what a bright star he already was as he stepped into this well-deserved promotion at NYL. He was such a bright light to everyone he encountered, and he will be dearly missed. In addition to being a wonderful son, brother, proud husband and father, please know that Nevel was also a treasured friend and colleague. My prayers and condolences to his entire family while working through this horribly painful loss. Rest in Peace, Nevel. We will never forget what an amazing person we were all so blessed to have known. - Dana

“ I couldn't believe it, on our first day in Dallas on May 20,2024, when we got off the plan, we met for the first time, he dressed in casual clothes, so young, easygoing and smiling. I asked him what's your name, ha said his name was Nevel. He will be missed forever.

“ Though I only had the opportunity to know Nevel for one week during the Associate Partner training in Dallas, he made such an impact with his kindness, compassion, intelligence, and love of his wife, daughter and family. I cannot fathom the pain from his loss. Please know that he left his mark on so many and adored his family.

“ I only had the honor of meeting and getting to know Nevel for a very brief time recently at the Associate Partner training in Dallas but he made an impact nonetheless. He was friendly, intelligent, funny, and made anyone around him feel welcomed. His love for his wife and child was so evident and I know he would have done anything for them. My heart breaks for his daughter who will not get to grow up with the man I know was and would have been an incredible father. Thank you, for letting all of us in the New York Life AP program borrow his light for those 5 days. He will be missed but not forgotten.

“ I am SO very sorry Nevel is no longer with us. Within the past few years, I met him in New York Life's Edison office (I've been an agent 40 years). He was delightful to talk to, and he had a wonderful personality. It was a shock to read that he passed. He didn't deserve this shortened life; he was full of life and joy, and I know you must miss him terribly.
