“ When I was 28 I was going through a divorce. Pat told me to stay with her and Danny as long as I needed to. She would go to Brooklyn with Jackie and Megan on Fridays and when I would come home she would leave me a note saying that she baked me some chocolate chip cookies and would put the cookie jar on the kitchen counter. That was her way I telling me that I should think of her house like my home. She was a wonderful friend and sister-in-law to me. I'll miss her so ❤️

“ *Pat was my Sister (sister-in-law). Wonderful memories of Christmas at her home. She opened her home each year for family celebration. She took great care to decorate joyfully to add to the celebration.
She was kind, compassionate and caring.
She will be missed by all.*
