

Patricia Cammarato

May 22, 1953 - December 4, 2023

Patricia "Patti" Cammarato, 70 of Point Pleasant Borough, New Jersey passed away on Monday, December 4, 2023, at her home.

Born Friday, May 22, 1953 in Springfield, Massachusetts, Patti was the daughter of the late Michael "Frank" and Agnes "Jackie" Walsh.

Patti was raised in Springfield and was a graduate of Sacred Heart High School. She would then obtain her associates degree from Bay Path College.

After college, Patti resided in Springfield until moving to Fort Lauderdale, Florida to serve on a task force with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF). Patti loved living in Florida, and made life-long friends through her work at ATF. Later in life Patti worked at a law firm in Point Pleasant.

She and her husband Tony met while in FL, and his role with the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) led them to reside in many locations, including Bangkok, Thailand, and multiple towns in Maryland and New Jersey. Most recently Patti resided for almost 20 years in Point Pleasant.

Patti enjoyed spending time walking on the beach, and staying healthy going for a run and walks on the boardwalk. Patti loved spending time with her beloved dogs, Boomer, Murphy, and Mario.

Patti was predeceased by her husband Tony, who passed away in 2003.

Patti is survived by her caring sister, June Monahan and her husband Michael, by her niece, Megan (Monahan) Griffin, and by her nephews, Tim, Matt, and Brendan Monahan.

Patti will be laid to rest next to her beloved husband Tony in a private service at St. Gabriel's Cemetery, Marlboro, NJ.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Patti's memory may be made to Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center.

Cemetery Details

St. Gabriels Cemetery

549 County Road 520
Marlboro, NJ 07746