“ The day Aunt Pat taught me to make rice balls in Giuseppe’s Pizza was the first day of my culinary career and I didn’t even know it .. but she did .. I remember I was asked to cater a party for her and uncle augie when they moved to NJ years ago.. all of Uncle Augies family was going to be there .. I was so nervous and aunt pat didn’t know about the party so I couldn’t ask for any of her help.. after everyone ate... Aunt Pat. Came to me and said “ see I knew you could do it kid.. great job... not enough salt in the pasta ..lol! I opened a catering company the next weekend .. Every accomplishment I have done in life has been guided by her in some way... and It will continue to be ... RIP Aunt Pat I love you
