

Paul Pollaci

May 19, 1974 - May 6, 2017

Paul Pollaci has found peace as he went home to be with the Lord on May 6th 2017. Paul was born in Brooklyn, NY, May 19, 1974.

Paul went to Lafayette High School where his passion for sports, especially, basketball made him one of the best players on the "Flames" team.

Paul's electrifying smile and charismatic presence would fill a room along with your heart. Paul's CARING, LOYAL, HUMOROUS, optimistic personality is what made us smile each and every day.

He loved unconditionally, never holding a grudge. Paul forgave easily and his passion was to always help the under-dog, as demonstrated in so many of his doings throughout his life. Paul's giving heart was contagious.

Paul had a true love for his family. Paul is survived by the love of his life, his precious daughter, Annabella, his loving mother, Theresa, his caring step-father, Paul, his adored niece Lauren, his namesake nephew Paul, his grandmother, Bianca, the mother of his daughter Melissa, his devoted Aunt Marie, and all of his Uncles and Cousins. Lastly, his best friend, his sister Tara.

Paul's favorite word was "LOYALTY".....

The family will receive friends from 4:00 PM to 9:00 PM on Thursday, May 11, 2017, at Michael Hegarty & John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals and Cremation Service, 3377 US Highway 9, Old Bridge, New Jersey.

“ Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.

“ Hey Lil Bro, I know you and Daddy are together smiling and catching up with each other. He's so happy u are with him now. I can see the two of you hanging out by the pearly white gates sitting next to each other laughing.

Heaven is singing and clapping this week because their handsome Angel Paul came home to make heaven greater and to make them all smile.

Im going to miss u here on earth little bro, your the light of mommy, Annabella and my life. The three of us love you so very much.

We love u unconditionally Paul and you made our lives better because you made us smile and taught us to let people be who they want to be.

We know how good your heart is, You made the people who came in contact with you so happy because of your caring ways. You were kindhearted and so special.

God' says His eye is on the sparrow, and His eye were ALWAYS on you from the day mommy gave birth to you, now, not only is God's eye on you, but His arms are wrapped around you, holding you and welcoming you home to where you are happy and FREE!

I love you little bro, ill see you soon.....we are going to dance together on those streets of gold....love your best friend, your sister,
Tara

“ To My Dear Sister Theresa, my Dear Niece Tara and my Dearest Great-Niece Anna Bella,

My words fall mute when I describe a man who had only compassion and love in his being. I can say without exception he lived his life in his truth- a beautiful man with a light so bright that when you met him you could never forget him, for he forgot no one. I cannot give tribute to my Paul with the feeble words of a fractured man, so I write the words of a man who exemplifies the beauty of his life.

To the Harbormaster

*I wanted to be sure to reach you:
though my ship was on the way it got caught in some moorings. I am always tying up and then deciding to depart. In storms and at sunset, with the metallic coils of the tide around my fathomless arms, I am unable to understand the forms of my vanity or I am hard alee with my Polish rudder in my hand and the sun sinking. To you I offer my hull and the tattered cordage of my will. The terrible channels where the wind drives me against the brown lips of the reeds are not all behind me. Yet I trust the sanity of my vessel; and if it sinks, it may well be in answer to the reasoning of the eternal voices,
the waves which have kept me from reaching you.*

*We will keep your light forever in our mortal hearts knowing that we will see you again dear Paul.
Dearest sister, niece and great-niece- though the light seems to waver, Paul's light is forever.*

“ Tara,

Words cannot express how we truly feel, only the emotion we are feeling. I want you to know we are always here for you and your family, "SIS". We truly felt we new Paul from the words that you spoke of him, and his loyalty to his family.

*The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not be in want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures,
he leads me beside quiet waters, he restores my soul.
He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.*

Love always, Chris, Kristine & Kayla
