

Peter Grivas

April 9, 1974 - June 1, 2018

Peter Grivas, 44 of Manalapan, New Jersey passed away on Friday, June 1, 2018, at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Hospital in New York, New York.

Born Tuesday, April 9, 1974 in Brooklyn, New York, Peter was the son of Peter Grivas and the late Nora Grivas.

Peter was raised in Staten Island. He graduated from Tottenville High School and then attended the College of Staten Island. Peter worked as a Field Technician in Staten Island for Verizon Communications. He was a member of C.W.A. 1102. In 2004, Peter married the love of his life, Jennifer Monreale, and in 2006 the couple moved to Manalapan, NJ. Peter was beloved by all who knew him for his honesty, integrity, big heart and his unending spontaneous wit. The greatest joys of his life were spending time with his family, hosting BBQ's throughout the summer for friends and family, and just tossing a football around with the kids. He was an avid baseball and football fan and enjoyed following his two favorite teams, the Mets and the Jets. What was most important to Peter was his family, and he will be deeply missed by all of them and all of his friends that were blessed to have had him in their lives.

Peter was predeceased by his loving mother, Nora.

Peter is survived by his beloved wife, Jennifer, his adoring son, Jake, his father, Peter, his sister Christine Zicchinolfi, his brother-in-law John Zicchinolfi as well as an abundance of extended family including 11 loving nieces and nephews.

“ I first met Pete back in '91 or '92 when we both worked at King Kullen on Arden Avenue in Staten Island. Pete was always a big 'ol slab of meat, so it made sense he would work at the deli counter. Just as it made sense for me, being lactose intolerant, to work in the dairy aisle. The deli was only two departments over, so I would always hear some ruckus from that direction. I can't recall exactly how we first started talking, but it probably involved some back-alley deal where I would supply him with Yoo-Hoo and he'd make me a sandwich. We worked together for a year or so when my little sister Jen also got a job at King Kullen. Jen was always on the quiet side. Pete? Not so much. I introduced them. I figured they would have one or two dates and that would be it. Never being good at math, my estimates were way off. Pete's name means "rock" or "stone," which are the best materials for a foundation, be it a house or a family. And that was Pete: strong and sturdy like a rock. He was always about family, friends, and being at home. There will never be another Pete, and he will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him.

“Pete and I knew each other for along time. We've had a lot of great times together growing up...from our family vacations, staying at each others houses for a week in the summer, non-stop Nintendo in the basement and swimming in the pool. It seems like all we did was laugh! As we got older and life got in the way, we lost touch. But I always considered you one of my closest friends no matter how long it was since we've last spoke. I will miss you, buddy. May God watch over you as you watch over us. RIP my friend. Till we meet again.

“We will always remember how kind, loving and generous Pete was. He was always there to help us if we needed him. He truly appreciated the simple things in life like being with his family& friends in the yard, hosting a barbeque with Jen. We will always remember him playing with his nieces and nephews at family parties and seeing how happy it made him. Thank you Pete for making life a little sweeter while you were here with us. Life will not be the same without you but we will cherish the memories forever. We love you Pete. Love Patty, Jimmy, Lauren & Gavin.
