“ You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Your dad always put family first and always made me feel like part of your family. He was a loving man and he will be missed by all. There are few words at this time to comfort you, but let his life and memories sustain you and the love he had for you all will live on forever. Love, Pam

“ Dear Kay, Barbara & Karen,We are so sorry to know you are struggling with grief from the unexpected loss of your husband/father, Pete. Please know that you and he are in our thoughts and prayers. And, although I only had limited contact with him during my life, he will always be remembered for his very friendly, sweet, kind and noncritical personality. The photo you've chosen to post is brilliant - perfectly depicts his shining smile! However brief my visits with him were, I'll will always remember him for being able to say something to give me a chuckle...an observation or some little comment or story, and more importantly, making me feel welcomed. May his love and the love and support from your family and friends bring you much strength and comfort during this difficult time and as time goes by,With much sympathy and warm wishes for peace,Cousins Daria, Graeme & Alexander xxx (Liverpool, England)

“ Dad I will love you forever. You have been a great Dad, always protecting us and caring for us. You taught us great values and morals. You always put family first. You had a simple life, but you lived your life to the fullest with love and joy. God called you home too soon. I wish I had more time with you. You will be forever in my heart. I love you, Karen.
