“ Been missing Peter a lot lately. I went to a psychic recently being that I like to practice spirituality and tarot. When I was getting read, Peter came through as one of my messages of being one of my spirit guides. The psychic told me he was banging at the door waiting to talk to me. I miss and love him dearly. I know he is watching over all of us. ❤️

“ I still think about him all the time. We met at Rutgers and quickly became close friends. We even talked about living together at one point. He always made me laugh, helped me with literally everything from homework to personal issues. I miss him so dearly. Sometimes I see stuff and go "omg peter would love this i wish i could send this to him", it still hurts. I got a tattoo in his honor, his birth flower. love you peder (our nickname for him). <3

*Dear Moriah,
Something made me look on Peter's tribute wall last night, as I was missing him so much. I saw your post and wanted to Thank you so much for sharing. I realized I don't know all Of Peter's friends and when I read your post it made me happy to know how much he touched others lives like he did yours. The tatoos you got in his memory is amazing. Thank you for caring about my son and being his friend. I am sure he is watching over you and continues to be with you always.
Love , Lisa 💕*

“ I met you playing Dota 2 when you were 15. I felt like your older sister. We would over all these years tell eachother about our lives about our families. I remember when you told me you were going to college and video chatting seeing your dorm. You told me about your girlfriend and we talked about Pokemon and anime. One day you stopped coming online and I thought you were busy. I never knew you passed. You have a beautiful smile and were a light in my life. I miss you and love you buddy. I miss you so much.

“ Peter, my dear friend, I'm really going to miss you. Thanks for being such a great friend and someone I can talk to and count on for the past 8 years. I loved each and every conversation we had even if it was over Snapchat and I will forever hold all of our memories close to my heart. You were kind, funny, and an overall amazing person. Rest In Peace, your band family from high school and I love you 💕💕

“ Peter - wherever you are I hope you're making everyone laugh just as you did for me every time we talked. You were an amazing friend who was always there for me no matter how long we went without talking, and I will always remember our late night Dead by Daylight gaming sessions fondly. Thank you for being my buddy for all these years - I love you.
