“ I sure will miss you and our once every 3 weeks phone calls. You were so kind and never forgot the little things in life that had so much meaning to others. One of the kindest things I will always remember is when you knew that I was at Kathy's house and you would stop by you always brought me my favorite Italian sesame cookies. You were so thoughtful and helpful to others in anyway that you could .For an example of what hysterically funny times we had remember when we went to Disneyworld and the antenna broke off my car and you used a knife to replace it and the reception was better than with the antenna ? Wow , did we laugh ! I sit here with tears running down my face knowing that I will never hear your voice again. When you would call I would always perk up with happiness because I knew I was in for a funny and laughing conversation walking down memory lane with you. If only there were more people like you in the world it sure would be a nicer and kinder place to live. My loving cousin goodbye for now until we meet again and have those wonderful funny conversations again and laugh and love. Your loving cousin always, Leslie

“ My condolences to the Migliore family. Phil and I were neighbors on Bear Street. He was about four years older than I, and taught me lists of things when we were kids. He actually taught me how to ride a bike, brought me fishing at Martlings Pond when we were kids. Years later I would work summers with Phil and his dad at their Mopar factory in NJ.. we went through the gas crisis and the long lines together when we carpooled. He was always there to help, and stayed in touch with and would occasionally check up on my elderly mom when she was still alive and living on Bear Street. We would run into each other from time to time and always share good memories. Rest In Peace Phil... I'm so glad we were friends....

“ When Loren and I were little, he bought her this huge stuffed animal - a rabbit or bear. The thing was at least 5 ft! He always knew how to put a smile on her face. I'm happy they are all together; Uncle Philly & Aunt Dolly, Loren and Carl, Kathy and cousin Philip. My condolences to the rest of our family and to his friends that were always there for him.
