

Phyllis Wood

July 16, 1933 - January 18, 2024

Phyllis Wood, passed away peacefully on January 18, 2024, in Old Bridge, New Jersey. She was born on July 16, 1933, in Iowa, to her loving parents, Kenneth and Bertha Bancroft.

Phyllis had a remarkable journey filled with love, laughter, and devotion. After marrying the love of her life, Tom, they moved from California settling Old Bridge, New Jersey, where they raised their beautiful children. Their marriage was a testament to their unwavering commitment to each other and their family.

Phyllis was a dedicated member of Christ Memorial Church in East Brunswick, where she found solace in her faith and actively contributed to the community. Her devotion to God and her church family brought her immense joy and fulfillment throughout her life.

Beyond her role as a devoted wife and mother, Phyllis enjoyed spending her free time indulging in her hobbies and interests, which included reading and watching old movies. Phyllis could often be found with a book in her hand, losing herself in the pages of captivating stories, or lost in the nostalgia of classic films.

Phyllis will be remembered for her kind heart and nurturing spirit. She had an unwavering love for her family, and her children, Tom and his wife Carol, Patricia, and step-daughter Debbie Rogers and her husband Alan, meant the world to her. Her family brought immeasurable joy to her life, and she treasured every moment spent with them.

Phyllis was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Tom. Their love story was one that inspired many, and their reunion in heaven brings solace to those left behind. Although Phyllis' physical presence will be deeply missed, her memory will forever be cherished in the hearts of her loved ones.

In addition to her immediate family, Phyllis leaves behind a community of friends and acquaintances who were touched by her kindness. Her warm smile and compassionate nature left a lasting impression on all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Throughout her life, Phyllis worked at Sears in East Brunswick, where she made lasting connections with her colleagues and served as a dedicated employee. Her hard work and dedication were evident in all aspects of her life, including her professional endeavors.

Phyllis Wood's legacy of love, kindness, and faith will continue to inspire those who were fortunate enough to have known her. Her memory will be a guiding light, reminding us to cherish our loved ones and to approach life with a compassionate heart.

Phyllis Wood, a beloved wife, mother, and friend, will be dearly missed but forever remembered for the love she shared, the lives she touched, and the legacy of kindness she leaves behind. May her soul find eternal peace.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.HegartyScaliaFuneral

Home.com