

Rahul B Nigam

April 8, 1985 - May 28, 2015

Rahul B. Nigam, 30, of Old Bridge passed away suddenly on Thursday, May 28, 2015 at 0137 am. He was born in New Brunswick, NJ at St. Peter's Hospital in New Brunswick. Rahul graduated from Fairleigh Dickinson University with a Bachelor of Arts in Hotel Management and Tourism. His one great passion in life was, without question, his beloved family. He was a very loving son and always helpful to his parents; beloved to his brother & sister and the greatest uncle to his nieces & nephew. His family returned his love tenfold. Rahul loved to make people laugh. His favorite food was Indian. He loved sports and was an avid Yankee fan. Rahul is survived by his loving parents Balkrishna and Sharmishtha Nigam; his adored brother Bobby Nigam and his cherished sister Swati Grover. He is also survived by his most precious nephew and four nieces; Devan, Rani and Anjali Nigam; Kareena and Shyla Grover. Also loved by his sister-in-law Jeannie Nigam and Brother-in-law Vineet Grover and all family members from the US and India. Friends and Relatives are invited to attend visitation Saturday, June 6, 2015 from 10am to 12 noon at Michael Hegarty Funeral Home, 3377 US Highway 9 Old Bridge, NJ 08857 followed by funeral services. A cremation committal service will take place Saturday 2pm at the crematory chapel of Holy Cross Burial Park & Mausoleum, 840 Cranbury South River Road Jamesburg, NJ 08831 All are welcome to come and cherish the memories of our beloved son, brother, uncle and best friend, Rahul.

“ Dear Robby, We miss you so much. I still to this day can't believe that I will never see your infectious smile again. Your smile was like the warmth of Sun, Your bright eyes would light up any room. Everytime I looked at you... I saw love, I saw caring. I always looked for the good in you because I always knew it was there. You were truly an amazing person. I will NEVER forget you.

“ Dear Nigam family. We're very sorry to hear of Rahul's death and the tragedy your family has experienced. We knew Rahul from his days in Cincinnati; such a kind young man and someone who really loved his family. We pray for a peace that surpasses all understanding, and will continue to pray in the weeks and months ahead as you grieve this loss. You and Rahul are in our thoughts and prayers!

“ Dear Nigam family -Robby was so special in so many ways. I only met him a few times and in those times I always felt at ease around him. I will never forget the time Rahul came to our 80's party- I was walking up the steps and there was Robby - dressed in a diaper looking like a cute baby! We laughed so hard. I still remember this like it was yesterday! He could do this since he was the only one there born in the 80's. I see his beautiful smile when I see pictures of Rani and it makes me smile. I have enjoyed hearing about the mile stones he accomplished in his life, the fun times with Bobby, sushi dinners with Swati, and outings with the kids. I recall hearing him speak so kindly of his parents. And I loved how kind and considerate he was to Jeannie. I will miss these stories. I'm so sorry. I will never forget him. I love you all!

“ To all the Nigam's- We feel so fortunate to have gotten to know and share some good times with Raul through the years. He was a gentle soul.....so big-hearted, affable, and truly kind to others. Your family is so welcoming, generous, and loving.....and I always enjoyed visiting with Raul at family gatherings. In my experience, Raul rarely sought the spotlight....but he was always willing to share a quiet joke or a quick remark. He was generous with his humor, his energy, and his time. He was so proud of your family.....He was such fun. I will remember his radiant smile.....his big, easy laugh.....and his goodness. Our hearts are with you all today.
