

Raymond Franco

April 23, 1937 - April 11, 2020

Raymond Manuel "Ray" Franco, 82, of Old Bridge, NJ passed away on April 11, 2020. Ray was born in Astoria, New York to Manuel and Martha Franco. He was raised principally in Dumont, NJ, and attended St. Celia High School in the nearby town of Englewood. Following high school, Ray attended Philadelphia College of Textiles & Science, from which he graduated in 1958 with a degree in Textile Engineering.

Ray was a loving and supportive husband, father, and grandfather who enjoyed the simple pleasures of life, including camping; cooking out; sitting by a fire; and visiting museums, parks, and beaches. Almost his entire life was lived near the ocean, and he was an avid boater and fisherman who spent much time along the New Jersey and New England coasts. His interests and knowledge in many subjects made him an engaging conversationalist. Among his most notable traits was his good sense of humor; he was an unassuming person who saw the humor in everyday life, and a thoughtful person who never took himself too seriously.

Ray is survived by his beloved wife, Patricia; children Raymond (Teresa) Franco and Louis (Darlene) Franco; grandson Benjamin; and siblings Dr. James M. Franco, J. Thomas (Diana) Franco, and Madeleine Franco. He is also survived by several nieces and nephews.

A private burial service was held on April 17, 2020. A memorial service will be held at a future date to be announced.
