“ To a man who lived life as a youngster, to his mother's chagrin (cakes for school) and Rosemarie having to fight for him. Who was best buds with Tommie. Who won Margie's heart. Served in Navy raising puppies in cuba and being only serviceman to go to Europe and not come home with any souvenirs. Supported his inlaws. Provided for them, his wife and kids with 1,2,3 jobs. Loved sunday visits to Nana's, Auntie Barbara's, Uncle Charlie's and Aunt Audry's. Any visits with Uncle Gene. Loved Margie so. Proud of his daughter and son. Great Pop-Pop to Brielle and Jonathan. Lymrics galore. What you saw was what he was, no pretenses. Playing cards...for pennies with family...and then his grandkids playing for cash & prizes. Playing with Benji and Kobe helping him recover in '08.And most proud, he fought so hard and no complaints last 3 years.We'll miss him, but boy he touched our lives in so many significant ways. That's a life.Love you Dad

“ He was the loving husband of Margaret for 57yrs. & father to Richard & Mary-Pat. The ever-proud Pop-Pop to Brielle and Jonathan. Loving brother to Ann & John. Preceeded in death by Father Jacob, Mother Rose, Brother Charles & Sister Rosemarie. He has more than 6 nieces & nephews. He served in the Navy for 4yrs. & a Special Policeman for 15yrs. He worked as a machinist for 50yrs. at Groove-Pin. Most of all he was a kind-hearted, easy-going, willing to please, crazy sense of humor kind of guy & will be missed every single day. Watch over us, buddy! Your proud daughter, Mary xoxo

“ My sincere sympathies to all of Mr Schnaars' family and friends. As I enjoyed viewing the photos of him and his family here it made me think of the sadness you must be feeling now but I hope you will rely on the many memories created to remember the joy & happiness you shared with him.
