“ Dad,

I love you more than any words could possibly ever describe. I'm going to miss you more than you probably ever imagined. We all will - all of us who were blessed and lucky enough to call you a Son, Brother, Father, Grandfather, Uncle, Cousin, or Friend.

You were always there to offer the shirt off of your back to anyone who needed it, and you readily sacrificed your own wants and needs to provide for us all. I think can I speak for the entire family and all of your dearest friends when I say we are so deeply humbled and honored to have been a part of your life and touched by your kind, caring - and often humorous - soul.

You raised me to be an honorable, honest, responsible, respectful, polite, kind, and decent man. And though I often fall short, I always strive to be the best I can, in hopes that someday I could be half as great as you. I can't even begin to tell you how grateful I am for all you have done for me throughout my entire life - even when we didn't see eye to eye, you were always there for me no matter what. I simply can't thank you enough. I only wish there was some way I could possibly pay you back...

The only thing that offers me any comfort is knowing you're with your family and Jesus again and no longer in pain or suffering.

I love you and miss you so much. I just wish you were still here so I can tell you that again. I love you Dad. Until we meet again...

*Always and forever,
Your loving son,
Sean

“ I had The pleasure of meeting Bob when I started dating Sean in 1989., at the age of 15. He always treated me love and loved taking us kids to look at the neighborhood Christmas lights. Bob also hit it off with my Mother. They would spend hours chatting and laughing. I miss them both. I am sure my Mom is showing him around, laughing at us kids now. May your journey be filled with love light and so much laughter. Please watch over your family and hold them close while they learn how to navigate through their heartache. I never say rest in peace, but rather, enjoy this next journey. All my love, Michele

“ *My Uncle by birth...
My Father Figure, My Brother, My Friend, My Confidant, My Mentor,
My Partner in Crime, My Boss, My Life Coach, but above all else
through life, My Rock!
My memories are endless...
Together we've gotten through our very best and our very worst days in life!
Your Love, Kindness, Humor and Thoughtfulness will live on in the hearts of all whom you've graced with your life.
Last of the Mohicans...
Knowing you're all reunited is my saving grace.
My salvation is knowing "you all" will be watching over "us all", til the day comes that we shall meet again!
Rest In Eternal Peace, I Love You Uncle*
