“ You learn a lot when you live in the same building as someone. Seeing someone day after day, they can not hide their character. A lot complain and do nothing, Bob on the other hand took action, whether it be putting up the Christmas tree, making sure a hall light got fixed, hooking up the hose , taking out someone’s garbage or vacuuming the hall.(climbing ladders to the second floor lol) When he was not improving the building he was telling jokes, making us laugh or helping plan a party. Most of all we awed at his devotion and love for his family . In other words Bob was a mensch (a good soul with great character) Bob will be sorely missed and leaves behind a huge void.

M & M I hope that the love of those around you and those good memories help you through these hardest of times. Please lean on your friends here at building nine xoxo Sharon “ Bob, you were always very special to Rita and I. We shared many, many laughs together and we will forever cherish those memories and hold them in our hearts. Every time we recall your name, it brings a smile to our face, not sadness because that’s who you were. Yes, you will be missed but we’re confident you are now living in eternal happiness and peace.
