“ Robert
You where a good classmate and a great teammate at Spotswood. I remember all the baseball cards you collected when we where in Grammar school. You never changed Bob, you treated people with respect and class. I wish we all learned from your example. We could not start a football game without you leading us in pray. I am sorry I did not find out about your passing. I would have been there. All I can do is pray for you like you prayed for us all these years. Rest in peace my classmate my teammate and my frien

“ I met Bob as well from Hess Corporation in Woodbridge, NJ. He and I would talk about Jeff Dunham and how the routines that Jeff had, or a show, etc. I was laid off in March 2014, and recently vacationed in Vegas and saw the Jeff Dunham show and thought of Bob all over again. Was very sad to hear of his passing, may he rest in peace.

“ I knew Bob from working at the Hess building in Woodbridge, NJ. I spoke to Bob frequently and he was always so kind and knew me by name. My heart was saddened by the knowledge of him passing. I will miss seeing his smiling face and our short talks. He made a positive impact in my life.

My deepest regrets.

“ Dear Sandy, Frank, and Marie,
I know how sad it is when you lose a loved one, but take comfort knowing that you'll see him again. A song by Steven Curtis Chapman says:

"We didn't really know how much we loved you til we lost you. We know we really didn't 'lose' you. That's just how it looks from here."

And...

"We'll see you in a little while."

“ There is added sadness that Bob's passing came so suddenly, when his physical condition was apparently improving. A somewhat similar situation occurred years ago when our oldest son, Bill, was injured and was promoted to glory so unexpectedly. We share the poem that Mrs. Mary Wygant of Cream Ridge, NJ, wrote at that time, which we now dedicate to Robert Andrew McGarey's "homegoing" this past Sunday, 4 October 2015 at the age of 55 years.

*"Never too young to be with God,
Though it be a sorrowful day
For those on Earth left alone and sad
To know he has gone away.
Never too young to be with God;
Just a little while ago
He came from God.
If God calls back the Loan,
It's surely better so."*

Our prayers and thoughts are definitely on behalf of Bob's dear family as they

"walk through the valley of the shadow of death," that there is the definite awareness that the Lord is surely with them, and the Spirit of God comforts and encourages them with the faith, hope, and love of Jesus Christ.

Sincerely, Pastor Bob and Sandy Turton and "the little flock" at the chapels (GMC)

“ Bob was a kind man of faith with a gentle soul. I'll remember his smile and laugh. Growing up cookouts in the backyard and games at family get togethers were always occasions for a lot of laughs. We shared laughs at our last conversation in the hospital. Sandy and I send our heartfelt condolences to the family.
