“ Bob was my best friend. We shared too many memories to pinpoint one. A few include how we met in 5th grade. He stuck up for me when I was a tiny dorky Puerto Rican kid that just over here. Another one is our trip to Puerto Rico. We had the time of our lives. He got to see where I came from and loved every minute of it. Or just the everyday laughs we used to share. I will really miss him. The biggest thing about Bob I will remember is that he thought I was the best at everything. Baseball, music, singing, fighting, being a father, or just his friend. If someone had anything bad to say about me, they had to deal with Bob. He showed me that it's not about how you look. It's not about popularity. It was just a genuine love of two friends that can never be broken. I will continue to carry on knowing he is watching over me. I have already felt his presence. It's a new chapter. But I know he's with me. Love you Bob and I'll miss you brother. Rest peacefully homie.
You're best friend,
Marco:(
195 forever bro!
