““Rose” I miss you already. I have had so much fun with you over the years and the family. Remembering all the parties at your house and most of all “setting up the christmas tree” at your house. Your “jewish daughter” who loved decorating for the holidays at your house. All the shopping trips too. You made me laugh so many times i will miss you lots. Hope your at peace now and in a better place. Love you, Marla Seybert
