

Rose Scarlino

June 13, 1937 - July 4, 2022

Rose Scarlino, 85 of Manalapan, New Jersey passed away on Monday, July 4, 2022, at the Reformed Church Home in Old Bridge.

Born Sunday, June 13, 1937 in Brooklyn, New York, Rose was the daughter of the late Joseph and Gabriella Imbriani.

Rose grew up in Brooklyn. After high school Rose attended King's County Nursing School and became an RN, and then would continue her education to obtain a Bachelor's Degree in Nursing from St. Joseph's College. She worked as a Registered Nurse for many years at King's County Hospital and South Beach Psychiatric Center, until retiring from Mt. Loretto on Staten Island.

After marrying the love of her life, William Scarlino in 1961 shortly thereafter, the couple would move to the New Dorp section of Staten Island to raise their children. They were both active members of Our Lady Queen of Peace. Rose was an active member of the New Dorp Civic Association while living there. Rose and William would eventually retire to Cape May and live there until about 10 years ago when they move to Manalapan to be closer to family.

In her spare time Rose enjoyed crafting, and was an avid reader, but spending time with her grandchildren was her favorite place to be. She was a loving and caring woman who will be missed by all those that were blessed to know and love her.

Rose was predeceased by her beloved husband William who passed away in 2016.

Rose is survived by her loving children, William and his wife Cindy, and Nicole Doran and her husband Joseph, and by her cherished grandchildren, Melissa Scarlino and her husband Chris Velletri, Patrick Doran and Sean Doran.

Funeral Services will include a memorial mass at a future date.
