“ Our deepest condolences to the Santurro family. Serg was a great neighbor and we were honored to have known him over the years. He was sweet, kind and gentle always caring and looking out for our family. He was in our prayers the past several weeks and we are heart broken over the loss. From our family to yours, god bless and deepest sympathy during these tough times.

“ His smile and wave across the street are gone now. Serge will be missed. He was a gentle man, soft-spoken always and so so smart... He always had the answers for his neighborhood friends. How he loved his wife and took such care of her through her days...and how proud he was of his grandchildren! Up and down the street, they would ride their bikes, with his constant watchful eyes on them. He so enjoyed them. I will miss his guidance and always his smile and his wave. Rest in peace.
