“ *Sonny and I spent a good part of our young life growing together. up until the time we where teens, we laughed, cried, picked berries, movies on a Saturday afternoon, fought, hunted, fished, church activities, spent lot of time with our Uncle Stan, he would take us to target practice if we collected the bottles and cans, spent lots of time with our Grandparents, especially our Grandmother. Our Uncle promised to take us fishing if we dug up the worms, while we where digging I stuck the pitch-fork thru my foot. Sonny, ran to my Grandmother. she was madder than a wet hen... we did get to go fishing the next day. just a small memory of our younger days. and so Life went on for Sonny and Me, we raised our families, kept in touch thru wedding, funerals, and all life happenings. You where always a special person to me. and now I have to say Rest easy cuz till me meet again. love Joanie
God said suffer no more my son.*
