“ Mom gave us all she had and all that we have.Raising six children, she always made sure we came first. She lived her life for us. She would always have a smile no matter what. Her time has come to be with God and I'm sure he opened the gates so she could be with her brothers and sisters. I love you Mom.

“ I wanted to express my most deepest condolences to all of Mrs. Sobieski's grieving family. It is beyond words what you have lost. As a dear friend to one of her many children, I was lucky enough to spend time with her on many occasions over the past 30 years. To me, she seemed the perfect mother and wife----a model we should all wish to emulate....When you saw her, she always had the biggest smile and was truly happy to see you. She had a gift for listening and resassuring, but I also remember the gleam her eye, her laughter and joy. I always felt better seeing her. She was magic to her husband and her many children and grandchildren. She was a rare gift--- a sweet woman with a soul that was pure and indeed, you were better after spending time with her. I feel lucky to have known her. I know her husband, children and grandchildren cherished her, however in return she adored you all, and she has left a great legacy. I hope in my life I can just do an 1/8th of what she did, and if so----I suspect I will have done well. I cant say enough about her goodness and kindness. My heart is grieving now, for her dear husband, grandchildren and her many children---- Please know you will remain in my prayers and thoughts for a long time to come. She knew how to live, love and laugh and I will never forget her sweetness. With sympathy, Susan Jacobs Mianulli, and son Matthew Drew Mianulli -

“ I would like to express, to all of Mrs. Sobieski's loving family, how sorry I am at the loss of your beloved mother, wife and grandmother. I had the pleasure of meeting and being with Mrs. Sobieski many times over the past 30 years. I was always impressed by her bright smile when she saw me (or anyone, for that matter) and her charming and simple demeanor in all things, around the house, when talking and seeing her children, when making jokes. To me, she seemed like the perfect wife and mother, she always said the right thing to make you feel like you were just the best, she always had a sweet gleam in her eye, ever watchful of her family. I know she was cherished but it was also clearly evident how she adored her family-----you saw that right away. I would hope and pray in my life that I could impart just a fraction of what she did, and how she affected others, and if I might accomplish that, I know I'd be doing pretty good. But Mrs. Sobieski was a master at love, no one can replace her, but I feel blessed to have known her and most of her children and husband. My prayers go out to all who loved her so very dearly, you are all in my hearts and prayers. She left a wonderful legacy for her family, although I know your hearts are simply breaking at this time. Much love and prayers, From Susan Jacobs Mianulli and son Matthew Drew Mianulli.
