Stephen attended high school at Monsignor Farrell, where he graduated in 1976. Stephen's journey in life included employment as an EMT for the FDNY. For seven years, he dedicated himself to helping others, selflessly serving the community he held dear. Stephen's compassion, dedication, and bravery made a lasting impact, and he will be forever remembered for his unwavering commitment to saving lives.

He cherished his role as a father and took great pride in watching his children grow, achieve their goals, and build their own families. Stephen's love for his children was immeasurable, and he was always there to offer support, guidance, and encouragement.

Stephen was a beloved brother to Fred and his wife, Lisa Hess, Kathleen and Joe Bowen, and Christopher. He shared a special bond with his siblings, and they were a source of strength and support throughout his life. Stephen treasured the moments spent with his family, cherishing the laughter, stories, and shared memories.

Stephen was a doting grandfather to his beloved grandchildren, Tegan, Brodan, Maevan, and Rydan. He found immense joy in their presence and cherished the time spent with them. Whether it was playing games, sharing stories, or simply being together, Stephen's love for his grandchildren knew no bounds.

Above all, Stephen adored his family. He relished every moment spent with his loved ones, creating lasting memories that will be cherished for generations to come. Stephen's love, kindness, and warmth touched the hearts of all who knew him, and his legacy will live on in the hearts and minds of those he leaves behind.
