

Steven Rosenbaum

September 20, 1948 - December 17, 2014

Steven Rosenbaum was a beautiful example of a human being. He lived a full life. He was a visionary and an entrepreneur who loved cutting edge technology, innovation, and business. He enjoyed reading, researching, giving advice, and all types of music. Steve's insight and wit had no limit - there wasn't a single person more hilarious or personable. He was determined and ambitious. His compassion, humility, intelligence, and kindness were unmatched. He was a leader and a mentor and an inspiration. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Steve is survived by his family whom he loved dearly: Ellen, his soul mate and wife of 42 years; his daughter Jewelia and her partner Jen Boschen; son David and his wife Danielle; son Kirt and his wife Jackie; three beautiful grandchildren Alexa, Weston and Fiona; and his sister Janice and her extended family. He was a beloved husband, father, brother, and uncle. Steve was born and raised in Clifton, NJ and resided in Old Bridge, NJ for the past 37 years. He passed peacefully on December 17th at his home in Florida. A Memorial Visitation for Steven will be held at the Michael Hegarty Funeral Home 3377 US Highway 9 Old Bridge, NJ 08857 on Saturday, December 27th from 3pm to 8pm. In lieu of flowers, please make a donation either to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital www.stjude.org or to the Prem Rawat Foundation www.premrawat.com.

“ My dearest Ellen, Life is so tender, so fragile, so very precious. Thoughts of deep and sincere sympathy are with you at this time. I wept as I read Steve's beautiful touching memorial and watched your lives together unfold before me through your photos. How blessed you both were to have found your soul mates in this life. I truly wish I had the privilege of knowing him, but I feel in some way I did. I have no words to adequately offer my heartfelt condolences. All my love and prayers, Eileen

“ As a kid, when I first met Mr. Rosenbaum I thought he was the second coming of Al Bundy from Married with Children. I quickly realized that Steve was 10 times funnier, and that he was even more intelligent than he was funny. Steve was probably the most unique person I've ever met. And Ellen might be the second most. Together they created such a wonderful family that I am fortunate enough to know and feel a part of. What a great loss. What a great man.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Rosey's passing. We shared many years, working together in New Jersey's Iron district. Rosey had a wonderful sense of humor, and we spent more time laughing together than anything else. He had a warm heart and a deep appreciation of life. And he loved eating eggplant parmigiana heroes with extra mayo! I am sending my deepest respect for him and the family, knowing he will continue to embrace the next part of his journey. Jim Hobbs

“ Steve was an amazing man and a dichotomy. He was a visionary of the highest level. He was a sceptic and a believer in unworldly things. He was able to make everyone around him feel loved and appreciated while remaining 100% honest about their faults. He was the most generous and most frugal person at the same time. He knew how to enjoy life to the fullest and share his good fortune with those he loved. I was lucky to call him my friend, I will miss him.

“ My deepest heartfelt condolences to you my dear Ananda and family. My heart and thoughts are totally with all of you. It's been a long time since I've seen you and Rosey, but time does not erase fond feelings and memories. This is not an easy time, but the love never, ever dies and we'll always surround Rosey with love and thanks for all he's given you. Wishing you peace, Linda and Richie Pollock

“ Dear Ananda and Family, Rosey was a beautiful man. Always kind and friendly. Although I did not know him well, we share a great common denominator, feeling peace. Whenever you and Rosey opened your home, I always felt welcome. Hopefully, his life was filled with love and joy. I am sure that you have wonderful memories of the loving times you shared.

“ How lucky I was to call my father my best friend, a companion, a confidant, and my teacher. His presence was a present. I loved him so much.

“ What a pleasure to have known such a good man. I was lucky enough to learn so much from him not only the business of Real Estate but some life lessons that I'll always appreciate. Steve always had a smile for everyone and what a sense of humor! Thank you Steve for being a part of my life Rest in Peace.
