

Tangerla Keaveney

April 12, 1966 - November 10, 2023

Tangerla “Tangie” Keaveney was born in Newark, NJ to Betty Crowell and Robert Bryson on April 12, 1966. She transitioned from this life on Friday November 10, 2023. Tangerla was raised in Newark until moving to Matawan with her family as a young child. In 1984, she graduated from Collier High School. Upon graduating High school Tangie began working at Marlboro Psychiatric Hospital in Marlboro Township, NJ. In recent years Tangie worked as a Dental assistant for Allied Dental and also worked as a Recovery Specialist at Recovery Services in South Amboy, NJ.

On September 18, 2016 Tangie married the love of her life Thomas Keaveney. One of their favorite memories they share as a couple was a trip they took to the Caribbean last year.

Tangerla enjoyed listening to music. WBLS 107.5 was her favorite station when listening to the radio in the car. One of her favorite artists was Mary J Blidge. She enjoyed being outdoors and spending time in nature. She loved seeing butterflies. Tangerla was a loving and caring woman who will be missed by all.

Tangerla is predeceased by her siblings, Richard "Ricky" McElroy and Montika McElroy, and also by her maternal grandparents Estelle Rich and Walter Rich.

Tangerla is survived by her beloved husband Thomas Keaveney, by her loving mother Betty Crowell. She is also survived by her children Ricky McElroy, Deaniera Thompson and Jailyn Thompson and by her siblings Diane Parren and Shari Williams and a host of nieces and nephews and cousins. She also leaves to cherish her memory her best friend of 32 years Michelle Hill
