“ As I met ‘Mother Teresa’ only about 10 years ago when Gina first introduced me to her mom, Teresa welcomed me (and my kids, my parents), to the family with open arms and a heart full of love, warmth, and a lot of great Italian cooking !Whenever I went over for dinner to Teresa's Kitchen for a family meal on special occasions, sometime after dinner and before coffee, she would ask if anybody was interested in ‘Limoncello’ ...looking at me ...with a wink and a smile ...knowing who's definitely going to say yes :)Fried Zucchini, REAL Italian Meatballs, Sausage & Peppers ...are never going to be the same to me as they tasted coming from her hands with all the love and care she put into them for us. Everything she cooked was great, but those three will remind me of her always. I’m also going to miss the unexpected phone calls from her, when she didn’t know where Gina, Brianna, or Brittany was. She would call me all worried, asking if I knew where they were. Once I told her where they were, she would calm down and say “Oh Madon ! They’re always out and about somewhere !”Teresa always told me to drop by ‘whenever’ and I regret not having taken her up on that offer a lot more than I did. Nonetheless, I will cherish all the time that I did have to get to know her and spend with her. It is people like Teresa that make life wonderful for the rest of us, and sometimes the lord takes away the best of us to remind us to appreciate what we have when we have it. My kids, my parents, and I all fell in love with her within the past few years, (how could you not !) and can’t believe how too soon the good lord took her away from us. Dear ‘Mother Teresa’, we are all going to miss you very much and we love you with all our hearts.
