“ To the Fortunato Family, Please accept my sincerest sympathy with this tremendous loss. I am saddened to learn of Theresa's death. From what little time I was with her she was such a enjoyable person to spend time with. My sympathy and prayers are with you and your family. This poem I have read numerous times and enjoy it each time I read it, may you find comfort in it. I am home in Heaven, dear one; Oh, so happy and so bright! There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light. All the pain and grief is over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last. Did you wonder I so calmly Trod the valley of the shade? Oh! but Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still' Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will. There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand; Do it now, while life remaineth-- You shall rest in Jesus' land. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!
