

Thomas Anthony Farbaniec

August 4, 1984 - January 6, 2018

Thomas Anthony Farbaniec, 33 of Marlboro, New Jersey died on Saturday, January 6, 2018.

Tom was born Saturday, August 4, 1984 in Livingston, New Jersey. The family eventually settled in Old Bridge. Tom enjoyed collecting coins and Baseball cards. He was a star little league baseball player consistently hitting home runs over the fence. He graduated from Matawan High School. After High School Tom went on to serve his country in the United States Coast Guard and was a recipient of the National Defense Service Medal. Later he attended Lincoln Technical Institute and earned his certificate in HVAC. Tom was a Union Carpenter, 3rd year apprentice in New York City. He enjoyed spending time with his 2 daughters. Tommy will be remembered for his laugh and his unforgettable smile and will be in our hearts forever.

Thomas is survived by his beloved daughters Gianna and Alyssa, by his loving parents Lisa Specchio and Thomas Farbaniec, by his loving step parents, Joseph Specchio, and Theresa Farbaniec, by his caring sister Daniela Farbaniec, and caring siblings Stephanie Smith, Aaron Smith, Joseph Specchio, and Patrick Specchio, and by his loving grandfather Luca Masucci.

“ *Lisa, Joe, and Daniella,
Ron and I can't express the sadness and shock of hearing this devastating news. Our hearts are so heavy..We loved Tommy, he was like a second son to us.. There were many times I scolded him and many times we shared a lot of laughs. Lisa as a friend and Mother I can't imagine your pain and will keep you in my prayers. A part of Tommy will always be with you. He will live within those 2 beautiful babies..Big hugs to Danielle as I know he was her Buddy and she really loved him.. sincere condolences to the rest of Toms family.. RIP Tommy you will be missed by many..with great sadness
