

Thomas George Ingram

December 23, 1947 - January 21, 2023

Thomas George Ingram, 75, of Ocean City, MD passed peacefully on Saturday, January 21, 2023 after a long illness.

Born December 23, 1947 in Ballybay, Ireland to Sheila and Ned Ingram, the family would move to the United States when Tom, affectionately known as Noel was very young and settle in Highbridge, the Bronx, New York.

He drifted through Sacred Heart School in Highbridge and to his parent's great relief graduated from Dewitt Clinton High School. His ability to keep most of those friends since childhood a nod to his nature. Friendly, outgoing, known in the neighborhood Tom was a lover of cars and in his teenage years could be found by the river shining up his 1962 Ford station wagon. His love of cars carried through the years, a different car in the driveway every other year, so many that we lost count. His prize possession a red and white 1957 Ford that he loved to show off at car shows.

He worked for most of his adulthood at Con-Edison out of the Van Nest Yard in the Bronx then in Westchester, New York before retiring in 2003. You could find him in the manholes telling tales of his younger years and had a story to associate with almost every person he has met.

Tom could make friends with just about anyone (literally). His smile was infectious and as he walked towards you with it you would just have the need to smile back. Many of times to his families dismay we learned quickly to add at least 10-20 minutes to any shopping trip because Tom was making a friend or telling jokes to strangers (mostly inappropriate). He loved a good flea market or anywhere he could get some tchotchke, I'm pretty sure all the grandkids in the family have a small license plate from Ocean City, MD with their name on it. The staff of Roses will surely have a shrine built for the man who strolled the isles daily. Whether you called him Tom, Tommy, Dad, Grandpa or Kiki he will be forever missed by all who knew and loved him.

Tom is predeceased by his parents Sheila (2014) and Ned (1985) Ingram and by his first born son Eddie (1972).

Tom is survive by his loving wife of 40 years Linda, His children Thomas Ingram and his wife Denise, Tara Bullen and her husband Jeremiah, his step children Kelly Martin, Tommy Martin and his wife Helen, Renee Martin - Mapes, and Todd Martin and his wife Annmarie, his 11 grandchildren Shonah, Jennifer, Melanie, Jessica, Tommy, Jesse, Tyler, Rachel, Madelyn, Noah and Emma, his caring family back in Ireland and many friends who have become family over the years.

At Tom's request services were private.
