

Thomas LanFranchi

September 7, 1974 - May 16, 2026

Thomas J. Lanfranchi II, 51, of the Bronx, New York, passed away on May 16, 2026.

Born on September 7, 1974, in Brooklyn, New York, Thomas was the son of Celeste Lanfranchi and the late Thomas J. Lanfranchi.

Thomas was raised in Parlin, New Jersey, after his family relocated there when he was 13 years old. He graduated from Sayreville High School, where he formed many lasting friendships and memories. During his youth, Thomas enjoyed playing Little League baseball and football, and he also wrestled in high school.

Thomas worked at the AMC Theatre, one of New York City's oldest movie theaters. As someone who loved classic films, he truly enjoyed his work and the atmosphere of being surrounded by the movies he cherished.

Outside of work, Thomas found joy in life's simple pleasures. He loved spending time reading books, listening to music, and writing. Whether immersed in a good story, enjoying his favorite songs, or expressing himself through writing, these passions brought him great happiness and comfort.

Thomas was a caring and loving man whose kindness touched the lives of many. He will be deeply missed by all who were fortunate enough to know him.

Thomas is survived by his beloved mother, Celeste; his loving siblings, Daniel and Lauren; his cherished nephews, Daniel and Christopher; and many loving aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

A celebration of Thomas's life will be held at a future date.
