

Timothy Wallace

November 15, 1929 - December 13, 2018

Timothy Wallace, 89 a longtime Old Bridge, New Jersey resident passed away on Thursday, December 13, 2018, surrounded by the love of his family.

Born Friday, November 15, 1929 in New York, New York, he was the son of the late Michael and Mary Wallace.

Timothy was raised in New York City, after finishing school he would join the United States Marine Corp, and he served his country honorably. Soon after his military service Timothy would meet the love of his life, Florence and the two would marry. In 1962, the family would move to Old Bridge, NJ and that is where they would raise their children. Timothy was a member of The National Association of Watch and Clock Collectors (NAWCC). His love of diving and photography led him to build an underwater camera. He invented a number of other items throughout his life including UPTACK, an ingenious way to hang pictures. Timothy was a member of the Old Bridge Theatre Guild, with his late wife Florence, always lending a skilled hand to help build the sets. He was a caring and loving father and grandfather and will be missed by all those that were blessed to have had him in their lives.

Timothy is survived by his loving children, Laurie Wallace, Christopher Wallace, and Amy Wallace, by his cherished grandchildren, Michael Stewart, Timothy Stewart, Brittany Wallace, and Christopher Wallace, and by two great grandsons, Jace and Dylan.
