“ I've known Tracey since the early 90's.. Her smile has ALWAYS remained the same as well as her unique personality... One of the things I adored about Tracey was the way she talked about her children, she loved them unconditionally... None of the stories she ever told me about them were ever the same, they just got better and better, and I really really loved that, I love when a woman can talk about their children like they're the only ones that matter in the world to them, it definitely goes to show you what kind of person that person truly is, and Tracey was just that, Tracey was and will always be a amazing Mother, and one of the most beautiful hearted woman I know.. The news about Tracey broke my heart, still feels so surreal.. My heart goes out To Jimmy, their Beautiful Daughter & adorable son as well as family & friends... Sending Prayers & a whole lot of hugs □□□□
