“ My wife and I knew Tyler from the diner. It was immediately apparent that he was a kind, sweet, special young man. We would ask for him whenever we went there because he was always so pleasant. We made sure to say hello to him whenever we were not at one of his tables. His passing at such a young age is a true tragedy. Even though we only knew him from the diner we are truly upset. We feel terrible for his family and friends and offer them our deepest sympathy. He was very special and he is in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I love you Tyler and we all will miss you so much. You brought joy to everyone around you. I loved how we could be so silly and weird together, and how you made me laugh so much it would hurt. You always complimented me on my makeup and cheered me up even if I was feeling down. Your outgoing personality was infectious and I admired how you always had a smile on your face. Thank you for being a light in so many of our lives. It's not goodbye, but see you later.

“ I remember, Tyler Schneck, you were like one of my oldest friends. I’ve known you since we were 6 years old and got close again in high school. You have always made me laugh, cheered me up, and you always saw the positivity in me. You always told me I was funny but I never believed those things for myself until I grew up a bit. You encouraged me to always embrace being myself.

I love how energetic and simply amazing you were. Of course, over time, we got pretty distant but the impact you made on me and others will never be forgotten. I knew that you were still the same Tyler as we grew up. You loved the simple things. You knew how to love and make everyone around you feel that warmth you brought in a room.

I’ll always remember when we would hold hands, run the hallways, and laugh at it all off. You knew how to make things fun and take it all lightly.

I miss you my friend and I love you, baby boy. May you Rest in Peace. ❤️😭

“ Tyler, only knowing you at the diner, it was very clear that you were a class act. You cared for all who surrounded you. Your work ethic was impeccable. You brought joy to those who knew you and to those who didn't know you. Your presence was clearly known to all. You had a smile of an angel my friend. God bless you and your family. We will miss you.

I was a customer at the diner where he worked. Right from the start, I told his bosses that he was an asset. He was so cheerful and efficient and KIND. He was kind, such an outstanding quality in today's age. I looked forward to having him so we could converse. MAY GOOD GOD BLESS HIM AND HIS FAMILY. ❤️🙏❤️🙏
