

Vincent Simonelli

September 25, 1944 - May 21, 2026

Vincent Simonelli, 81, of Old Bridge, New Jersey, passed away peacefully on May 21, 2026.

Born on September 25, 1944, Vincent lived a life defined by quiet strength, devotion to family, and generosity toward others. A proud Vietnam War Veteran, he carried a deep sense of loyalty and responsibility throughout his life and was always someone his family could depend on.

Vincent was a devoted family man who took great pride in caring for those he loved. Nothing brought him more joy than spending time with his grandchildren, whom he loved deeply. He was known as a generous gift giver who especially enjoyed decorating for the holidays and creating warm memories for his family during special occasions.

He was an avid sports fan and rarely missed watching the New York Yankees, the New York Rangers, or just about any sporting event he could find. Vincent also had a love for history and enjoyed learning and sharing facts about the past. An avid gardener, he found great peace and joy in tending to his plants and watching things grow. A quiet man by nature, his love, kindness, and steady presence spoke volumes to those who knew him best.

Vincent will be remembered for his dedication to family, his gentle spirit, and the countless ways he showed love through actions rather than words. He leaves behind family and friends who will forever cherish his memory and deeply miss his presence.

Vincent is survived by his wife of 55 years, Patricia; his three daughters, Regina, Michelle, and Doreen; and his three grandchildren. He is also survived by his son-in-laws, Craig and Masakazu, who are loving partners and a meaningful part of Vincent's family.

May he rest in peace and remain forever in the hearts of those
