

Wilfredo Valentin

May 16, 1941 - June 6, 2024

Wilfredo Valentin, 83 of Old Bridge, New Jersey passed away on Thursday, June 6, 2024, at HMH Raritan Bay Medical Center.

Born May 16, 1941 in Quezon, Philippines, Wilfredo, better known as Willie, was the son of the late Dr. Carmelo and Juanita Valentin. Willie was the oldest of 4 siblings, Eric, Josephina, and Carolina who he will now be reunited with as a family again.

Willie was raised in the Philippines where he met the love of his life, Linda Zenarosa. The couple would marry, and eventually settle in the United States, starting their family in Jersey City and moving to Old Bridge in 1974.

Willie worked as a lab technician at the St. Francis Hospital in Jersey City, and was a member of Local 1199. When Willie wasn't working, he enjoyed playing tennis, working on crossword puzzles, bird watching, and drives down the shore. Willie was a fan of the NY Yankees and enjoyed watching the team play.

Willie is survived by his beloved wife of 60 years, Linda, by his loving daughters, Kristin McAnally and her husband James, Susan Rhodes and Les, and Kim Valentin, by his cherished grandchildren, Ciara Forbes and her husband Matthew, Matthew McAnally, Kaitlyn McAnally, Kristina McAnally, and Taylor Rhodes, and by his adored great grandchildren, Annabelle, Vivienne, Josephine, and Madeleine.

Willie was the best girl dad and Pop Pop. He was the rock of our family and we have so many fond memories to thank him for. He is already missed and loved beyond all comprehension.
